BATTLE OF THE BRACKETS – WEEK TWO!

It's week two and the Carrier Dashboard Dancers came out as our Cinderella Story after week one, but will the slipper still fit after they go head to head against a team whose name says it all... the Fortunate Forms? Now turn on all the lights and grab your popcorn for this thriller! The Computer Based Training Chillers are up against the Streetwise Newsletters. Will it be an epic battle to the last, or, will the spooky music do us all in?

Click this link to participate in the survey to find on Thursday April 25th.

The rules for participation and entry to win one of three $25 gift cards are simple.

1. Click the links on our social media feeds or our website to participate in a short 1 minute matchup poll.
2. There will be a new link each week for a new survey to take part in the matches. The surveys are done through survey monkey. You must leave a valid email address to participate. (This is only so that we can add it to the random drawing for the gift card and have a way to contact you should you win.)
3. Simply pick your favorite or most useful MWCIA Program out of the matchups listed and vote!
4. Check back on Thursday each week for the winner and Mondays for the new link to vote.
5. It really is that easy!

Sincerely,

MWCIA Staff and Management

(Employees of MWCIA are not eligible to win prizes in this contest.)
